

A Statement of Faith

WHO

The National Coalition of Churches For Reparations is a divinely inspired movement, which formed with the purpose of galvanizing believers for the advocacy of reparations. In Luke 19:1-10, Jesus went to the house of a tax collector named Zacchaeus. "He said to Jesus, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, Today, salvation has come to this house. "

WHY

In view of Christ, Zacchaeus made reparations. Reparations are atonement. Reparations are biblical. Ecclesiastes 3 teaches us there is a time to be silent, but there is also a time to speak. During slavery, the Reconstruction period, as well as the Civil Rights era, "The Church" has always been American Descendants of Slavery saving grace. The George Floyd moment greatly changed the landscape of our country. Thus like those who have gone before us, we must get the revelation that there is a need for a coalition of churches to become our people's same saving grace.

WHAT

In this very pivotal moment, The National Coalition of Churches for reparations are asking those who view this to join us as we lock arms in the sight of God to advocate for change and atonement. That change is reparations. Please go to the "Get Involved" section of our website and become a part of this Godly movement. "We must walk together children, Don' you get weary. There's a great camp meeting in the promised land!"
